

Master Instructor Certificate Program

MaKami College offers an online and in-person Master Instructor Certificate Program that gives you the ability to take your skills to the next level.

We are a public, post-secondary college located in Alberta, Canada. We are included in the Government of Canada's List of Designated Learning Institutions.

About the Program

MaKami College's Personal Trainer Certificate Program is a 1-year, full-time program. This flexible program is offered in a blended format, with online and in-class components, allowing you to learn at your own pace, with over 360 practicum and applied learning activities to be completed in tandem with the program.

The Master Instructor program will provide a solid, well-rounded foundation of educational theories and principles, along with practical application opportunities for you to integrate and utilize in a variety of educational settings.

In this online program, you will be introduced to a broad range of learning theories and explore the role they play in instruction, fundamentals of adult student-centered learning, presentation and lecture delivery, environment and classroom management, and evaluation and assessment methods.

- Identify measurable learning objectives.
- Apply adult learning principles.
- Establish an environment conducive to learning.
- Create diverse opportunities for participants to connect with the content.
- Facilitate learning using best practice techniques.
- Practice learner-centred training methods and alternatives.
- Develop strategies for different learning needs.
- Identify challenges in the classroom, and select and apply the most effective solutions.
- Utilize new technology to deliver your courses using online tools and strategies.

Please refer to your curriculum outline for a complete course list.
