ABOUT THIS AWARD

The Richard R. & Linda A. Singleton Award is open to all students enrolled in the Applied Politics and Public Affairs program. It is established in memory of Linda A. Singleton, former Assistant Deputy Minister of Public Affairs in the Ralph Klein Conservative Government of Alberta. Linda's exemplary career included many years in Public Affairs with Husky Oil and Transalta. Richard (Ric) and Linda volunteered for many years in the Provincial Conservative constituencies and the Federal Conservative constituencies. The award's recipients will have demonstrated MaKami's values of leadership, innovation and community service, and reflect a focused work ethic, having achieved a high level of academic standing. Detailed eligibility is outlined in this application form with the award being available on an annual basis. This award will be applicable at the end of their year 1 of 2 or anytime in year 2 as long as they have maintained their grade point average and have met all of the above criteria.
